Letter From Neville

This book contains the very essence of the Principle of Expression.

Had I cared to, I could have expanded it into a book of several hundred pages, but such expansion would have defeated the purpose of this book.

Commands — to be effective — must be short and to the point. The greatest command ever recorded is found in the few simple words, “And God said, ‘Let there be light.’”

In keeping with this principle, I now give to you, the reader, in these few pages, the truth as it was revealed to me.

About Neville

Neville Goddard (1905-1972) — better known as just Neville — was a quietly dramatic teacher in the New Thought movement. He was a charismatic man who taught practical metaphysics beginning in the Great Depression of the 1930s, when the country really needed it.

Joseph Murphy, another popular and prolific writer and lecturer, who studied with Neville in New York City, said: “Neville may eventually be recognized as one of the world’s great mystics.”

Born in 1905 on Barbados in the British West Indies, Neville was the fourth child in a family of nine boys and one girl. Neville originally came to the United States at the age of 17 to study drama. In 1932 he gave up the theater to devote his time to his studies in mysticism.

He began his lecture career in New York City. After traveling throughout the country, he eventually made his home in Los Angeles. In the late 1950's, he gave a series of talks on television, and lectured regularly to capacity audiences at the Wilshire Ebell Theater. In the 1960's and early '70s, he confined most of his lectures to Los Angeles, New York, and San Francisco.

Neville once said that if he was stranded on an island and was allowed one book, he would choose The Bible without hesitation. If he could squeeze in more, he would add Charles Fillmore's Metaphysical Dictionary of Bible Names, William Blake, and Nicoll's Commentaries. These were the books he recommended at his lectures.

In his lectures and books, Neville dealt solely with The Law until the year 1959. He said, "For I did not know of The Promise until I began to experience it and have it unfold within me beginning that summer and continuing during the next three-and-one-half years. And this is Scriptural," he would say, "read it in the of Book of Daniel where it is referred to as 'a time, times, and a half.' It comes to 1260 days in your experience of it."

In his use of The Law, he related how he made a sea voyage from New York to see his family in Barbados during the Depression, without any money of his own. He related how, by the use of imaginal power, he was honorably discharged from military service to continue his lectures during World War II.

He gave his audiences in San Francisco in the 1950's and '60s accounts of how others had made use of The Law. He discussed it on television in the Los Angeles area. He taught, "Learn how to use your imaginal power, lovingly, on behalf of others, for Man is moving into a world where everything is subject to his imaginal power."

In the latter part of the 1960's and early '70's Neville gave more emphasis to The Promise, after he had experienced it. He said, "The use of imaginal power can change circumstances, but it is all temporary, and will vanish like smoke."

Neville spoke without notes and followed his lectures with questions and answers. When he was asked if he had tapes of his lectures for sale, he replied, "I have no tapes. Others here are making tapes for their own use, perfectly all right. But I have no tapes."

There are many audio recordings of his lectures circulating today, thanks to the loyalty of many of Neville's students and friends who have preserved much of what he said. Most of his books are also available in print.

This book you are holding, At Your Command, is considered the very first book by Neville, and is the rarest of them all. It has not been in print since 1939.

Neville died on October 1, 1972, in Los Angeles. Although Neville's career peaked in the late 1950's and early 60's, his message continues to find a place in the hearts of spiritual readers throughout the world today.

(Never weary of doing good)

Preface

Ask yourself — What would you want if you could command the universe to hand it to you?

Fame? Fortune? Heath? Romance? Enlightenment?

At last — for the first time since 1939 — a famous mystic's recipe for guaranteed success is revealed in the little masterpiece called At Your Command.

Neville was a popular author and speaker who taught practical metaphysics beginning in the Great Depression of the 1930s. His methods influenced countless people, from prolific writer Joseph Murphy to best-selling author Dr. Joe Vitale, author of the #1 best-seller, The Attractor Factor.

Vitale discovered a rare pristine copy of Neville's first long lost book, paid a whopping $515 for it, and arranged to bring it back in print.

You can now read this brilliant little gem and begin to realize that the world is truly At Your Command!

FOREWORD

The Third Ghost

Or, Why I Offered $1,500 for a Copy of This Book

by Dr. Joe Vitale

I've been haunted by three ghosts in my life.

The third one appeared last month. I never know why they pick me, but the relationship usually leads to a brief glimpse of fame and fortune. Maybe this time won't be any different.

The first ghost came to me in 1989. I was reading the famous Robert Collier Letter Book and came across the name Bruce Barton. I'm sure thousands have read the same book, saw the same name, but did not have the same experience I had.

I got chills. Something awakened inside me. I began a two year quest to learn all I could about this now forgotten advertising genius and bestselling author.

The result was my book, The Seven Lost Secrets of Success. It's been through 11 printings. One person bought 19,500 copies of it. The ghost of Barton led me to write that book. It has gone on to touch lives around the world, and continues to do so.

But he was only the first.

The second ghost was P.T. Barnum. The famous showman and circus promoter came to me while I was reading his autobiography. That led to my quest to learn his business secrets. A year later, I wrote the book, There's a Customer Born Every Minute. It also led to my audio program with Nightingale-Conant, The Power of Outrageous Marketing. The program has been a best-seller for over 5 years now.

The third ghost came to me last month.

I have been a fan of Neville, the mystical writer of several books, for a decade or more. I mention him and quote him in my latest book, The Attractor Factor. I even called one of the steps in the book, on manifesting with feeling, "Nevillize." You Nevillize a goal when you feel as if you already have it. But apparently that wasn't enough for Neville.

A few weeks ago, I noticed an article about him in a major magazine. That reawakened my interest in the Barbados mystic. I searched and found some of his audios. These are actual recorded talks from speeches he gave in the 1950s and 1960s. I found a man who owned all known recordings of Neville. I bought all 106 of them. I felt as if Neville was speaking to me as I listened to them.

Then, I found five lessons Neville taught in 1948. These are very rare. They are about practical metaphysics and how to manifest your heart's desires — pure gold. I relished the fact that I was somehow led to the lessons. But something shocking happened as I read them.

Neville was talking about needing to take a ship back to his home country. He said the boat's name was "Nerissa." That is the second time I've heard that name. It's the name of my beloved partner, who I've been with for six years now. Too weird.

But the ghostly events didn't stop there.

In the very same week that I found the rare lessons, someone posted five books by Neville on eBay. All were first editions, perfect condition, and autographed. Neville showing up on eBay is odd enough. For five signed books to appear was even stranger. I, of course, bought them all.

The adventure didn't stop there.

A few days later, eBay notified me that another Neville item was just put online for bidding. I looked and couldn't believe what I saw. It was the original published lesson plan from the 1948 lectures I had discovered — and the manual was autographed.

Then, a few days after that, yet another Neville item went on eBay. This turned out to be a truly rare book from 1939 called At Your Command.

I had never heard of it before. Apparently, neither had other Neville fans, who had been quiet until now, as the bidding grew hot. In only one day, people were bidding $500 for this little gem. I, of course, wasn't going to let this one slip by. I bid $1,500 for it and won it for $515.

That's right. I paid $515 for this book.

Is the book worth it?

I used it to manifest a new car — a BMW 645Ci is being built for me right now in Germany. You have to realize that I was once homeless and despondent. To have one of the greatest car makers in the world build a car FOR me is virtually miraculous.

So, if having ghosts in my life isn't weird enough, I just paid $515 for a little book that is sharpening my powers to manifest what I desire, which is today a $90,000 luxury sports car.

This is getting too strange.

The events were reminding me of my experiences with Bruce Barton and P.T. Barnum. I have no idea if the ghosts of these great men were actually contacting me or not, but you have to admit that the synchronicity of events leading me to write my books has been uncanny. No wonder I've been a fan of Rod Serling, who I met when I was a teenager.

I live The Twilight Zone.

I'm not sure why Neville is contacting me. Maybe it's just to dust off his message and present it to a new audience (meaning you). Thinking that's what he wants, I decided to print this book — the one you are holding now — to help keep his message alive.

You will love this gem. It will teach you the ultimate secret to having, doing, or being whatever you can imagine.

You are going to learn — from the amster himself — how to "Nevillize" your goal.

But there may be a greater lesson here.

The joy in life is in following joy.

What I mean is, whether paying attention to these “coincidences” leads to anything or not isn’t as important as the thrill of acting on them. The adventure is in the journey, not in the destination. The destination is simply a pause before the next journey.

Are you acting on the nudges you get, even when you have no idea where they will lead?

If so, you will find life exhilarating.

And you might even meet a ghost or two.

Enjoy this book, and remember, the world is —

At Your Command.

At Your

COMMAND

At Your Command

Can man decree a thing and have it come to pass? Most decidedly he can! Man has always decreed that which has appeared in his world and is today decreeing that which is appearing in his world and shall continue to do so as long as man is conscious of being man. Not one thing has ever appeared in man's world but what man decreed that it should. This you may deny, but try as you will you cannot disprove it, for this decreeing is based upon a changeless principle. You do not command things to appear by your words or loud affirmations. Such vain repetition is more often than not confirmation of the opposite. Decreeing is ever done in consciousness. That is; every man is conscious of being that which he has decreed himself to be. The dumb man without using words is conscious of being dumb. Therefore he is decreeing himself to be dumb.

When the Bible is read in this light you will find it to be the greatest scientific book ever written. Instead of looking upon the Bible as the historical record of an ancient civilization or the biography of the unusual life of Jesus, see it as a great psychological drama taking place in the consciousness of man.

Claim it as your own and you will suddenly transform your world from the barren deserts of Egypt to the promised land of Canaan.

Every one will agree with the statement that all things were made by God, and without him there is nothing made — that is made — but, what man does not agree upon is the identity of God. All the churches and priesthoods of the world disagree as to the identity and true nature of God.

The Bible proves beyond the shadow of a doubt that Moses and the prophets were in one hundred per cent accord as to the identity and nature of God. And Jesus' life and teachings are in agreement with the findings of the prophets of old. Moses discovered God to be man's awareness of being, when he declared these little understood words, "I AM hath sent me unto you." David sang in his psalms, "Be still and know that I AM God." Isaiah declared, "I AM the Lord and there is none else. There is no God beside me. I girded thee, though thou hast not known me. I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil. I the Lord do all these things."

The awareness of being as God is stated hundreds of times in the New Testament. To name but a few: "I AM the shepherd, I AM the door; I AM the resurrection and the life; I AM the way; I AM the Alpha and Omega; I AM the beginning and the end"; and again, "Whom do you say that I AM?"

It is not stated, "I, Jesus, am the door. I, Jesus am the way," nor is it said, "Whom do you say that I, Jesus, am?" It is clearly stated, "I AM the way." The awareness of being is the door through which the manifestations of life pass into the world of form.

Consciousness is the resurrecting power

Consciousness is the resurrecting power — resurrecting that which man is conscious of being. Man is ever out-picturing that which he is conscious of being. This is the truth that makes man free, for man is always self-imprisoned or self-freed.

If you, the reader, will give up all of your former beliefs in a God apart from yourself, and claim God as your awareness of being — as Jesus and the prophets did — you will transform your world with the realization that, "I and my father are one." This statement, "I and my father are one, but my father is greater than I," seems very confusing — but if interpreted in the light of what we have just said concerning the identity of God, you will find it very revealing. Consciousness, being God, is as 'father.' The thing that you are conscious of being is the 'son' bearing witness of his 'father.' It is like the conceiver and its conceptions. The conceiver is ever greater than his conceptions yet ever remains one with his conception. For instance; before you are conscious of being man, you are first conscious of being. Then you become conscious of being man. Yet you remain as conceiver, greater than your conception — man.

Jesus discovered this glorious truth and declared himself to be one with God — not a God that man had fashioned. For he never recognized such a God. He said, "If any man should ever come, saying, 'Look here or look there,' believe them not, for the kingdom of God is within you." Heaven is within you. Therefore, when it is recorded that "He went unto his father," it is telling you that he rose in consciousness to the point where he was just conscious of being, thus transcending the limitations of his present conception of himself, called 'Jesus.'

In the awareness of being all things are possible, he said, "You shall decree a thing and it shall come to pass." This is his decreeing — rising in consciousness to the naturalness of being the thing desired. As he expressed it, "And I, if I be lifted up, I shall draw all men unto me." If I be lifted up in consciousness to the naturalness of the thing desired I will draw the manifestation of that desire unto me. For he states, "No man comes unto me save the father within me draws him, and I and my father are one." Therefore, consciousness is the father that is drawing the manifestations of life unto you.

You are, at this very moment, drawing into your world that which you are now conscious of being. Now you can see what is meant by, "You must be born again." If you are dissatisfied with your present expression in life the only way to change it, is to take your attention away from that which seems so real to you and rise in consciousness to that which you desire to be. You cannot serve two masters, therefore to take your attention from one state of consciousness and place it upon another is to die to one and live to the other.

The question, "Whom do you say that I am?" is not addressed to a man called 'Peter' by one called 'Jesus.' This is the eternal question addressed to one's self by one's true being. In other words, "Whom do you say that you are?" For your conviction of yourself — your opinion of yourself will determine your expression in life. He states, “You believe in God — believe also in me.” In other words, it is the me within you that is this God.

Praying then, is seen to be recognizing yourself to be that which you now desire, rather than its accepting form of petitioning a God that does not exist for that which you now desire.

Prayers to be successful must be claiming rather than begging

So can't you see why the millions of prayers are unanswered? Men pray to a God that does not exist. For instance: To be conscious of being poor and to pray to a God for riches is to be rewarded with that which you are conscious of being — which is poverty. Prayers to be successful must be claiming rather than begging — so if you would pray for riches turn from your picture of poverty by denying the very evidence of your senses and assume the nature of being wealthy.

We are told, “When you pray go within in secret and shut the door. And that which your father sees in secret, with that will he reward you openly.” We have identified the ‘father’ to be the awareness of being. We have also identified the ‘door’ to be the awareness of being. So ‘shutting the door’ is shutting out that which ‘I’ am now aware of being and claiming myself to be that which ‘I’ desire to be. The very moment my claim is established to the point of conviction, that moment I begin to draw unto myself the evidence of my claim.

Do not question the how of these things appearing, for no man knows that way. That is, no manifestation knows how the things desired will appear.

Consciousness is the way or door through which things appear. He said, “I AM the way” — not ‘I,’ John Smith, am the way, but “I AM,” the awareness of being, is the way through which the thing shall come. The signs always follow. They never precede. Things have no reality other than in consciousness. Therefore, get the consciousness first and the thing is compelled to appear.

You are told, “Seek ye first the kingdom of Heaven and all things shall be added unto you.” Get first the consciousness of the things that you are seeking and leave the things alone. This is what is meant by “Ye shall decree a thing and it shall come to pass.”

Apply this principle and you will know what it is to ‘prove me and see.’ The story of Mary is the story of every man. Mary was not a woman — giving birth in some miraculous way to one called 'Jesus.' Mary is the awareness of being that ever remains virgin, no matter how many desires it gives birth to. Right now look upon yourself as this virgin Mary — being impregnated by yourself through the medium of desire — becoming one with your desire to the point of embodying or giving birth to your desire.

For instance: It is said of Mary (whom you now know to be yourself) that she know not a man. Yet she conceived. That is, you, John Smith, have no reason to believe that that which you now desire is possible, but having discovered your awareness of being to be God, you make this awareness your husband and conceive a man child (manifestation) of the Lord, "For thy maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is his name; the Lord God of the whole earth shall he be called." Your ideal or ambition is this conception — the first command to her, which is now to yourself, is "Go, tell no man." That is, do not discuss your ambitions or desires with another for the other will only echo your present fears. Secrecy is the first law to be observed in realizing your desire.

The second, as we are told in the story of Mary, is to "Magnify the Lord." We have identified the Lord as your awareness of being. Therefore, to 'magnify the Lord' is to revalue or expand one's present conception of one's self to the point where this revaluation becomes natural. When this naturalness is attained you give birth by becoming that which you are one with in consciousness.

The story of creation is given us in digest form in the first chapter of John.

Things live only as long as I am aware of being them

"In the beginning was the word." Now, this very second, is the 'beginning' spoken of. It is the beginning of an urge — a desire. 'The word' is the desire swimming around in your consciousness — seeking embodiment. The urge of itself has no reality, For, "I AM" or the awareness of being is the only reality. Things live only as long as I am aware of being them; so to realize one's desire, the second line of this first verse of John must be applied. That is, "And the word was with God."

The word, or desire, must be fixed or united with consciousness to give it reality. The awareness becomes aware of being the thing desired, thereby nailing itself upon the form or conception — and giving life unto its conception — or resurrecting that which was heretofore a dead or unfulfilled desire. "Two shall agree as touching anything and it shall be established on earth."

This agreement is never made between two persons. It is between the awareness and the thing desired. You are now conscious of being, so you are actually saying to yourself, without using words, "I AM." Now, if it is a state of health that you are desirous of attaining, before you have any evidence of health in your world, you begin to FEEL yourself to be healthy. And the very second the feeling "I AM healthy" is attained the two have agreed. That is, I AM and health have agreed to be one and this agreement ever results in the birth of a child which is the thing agreed upon — in this case, health. And because I made the agreement I express the thing agreed. So you can see why Moses stated, "I AM hath sent me." For what being, other than I AM could send you into expression? None — for "I AM the way — Beside me there is no other." If you take the wings of the morning and fly into the uttermost parts of the world or if you make your bed in Hell, you will still be aware of being. You are ever sent into expression by your awareness and your expression is ever that which you are aware of being.

Again, Moses stated, "I AM that I AM." Now here is something to always bear in mind. You cannot put new wine in old bottles or new patches upon old garments.

That is; you cannot take with you into the new consciousness any part of the old man. All of your present beliefs, fears and limitations are weights that bind you to your present level of consciousness. If you would transcend this level you must leave behind all that is now your present self, or conception of yourself. To do this you take your attention away from all that is now your problem or limitation and dwell upon just being. That is; you say silently but feeling to yourself, "I AM. Do not condition this 'awareness' as yet. Just declare yourself to be, and continue to do so, until you are lost in the feeling of just being — faceless and formless. When this expansion of consciousness is attained, then, within this formless deep of yourself give form to the new conception by FEELING yourself to be THAT which you desire to be.

You will find within this deep of yourself all things to be divinely possible. Everything in the world which you can conceive of being, is to you, within this present formless awareness, a most natural attainment.

The invitation given us in the Scriptures is — "to be absent from the body and be present with the Lord." The 'body' being your former conception of yourself and 'the Lord' — your awareness of being. This is what is meant when Jesus said to Nicodemus, "Ye must be born again for except ye be born again ye cannot enter the kingdom of Heaven." That is; except you leave behind you your present conception of yourself and assume the nature of the new birth, you will continue to out-picture your present limitations.

The only way to change your expressions of life is to change your consciousness

The only way to change your expressions of life is to change your consciousness. For consciousness is the reality that eternally solidifies itself in the things round about you. Man's world in its every detail is his consciousness out-pictured. You can no more change your environment, or world, by destroying things than you can your reflection by destroying the mirror. Your environment, and all within it, reflects that which you are in consciousness. As long as you continue to be that in consciousness so long will you continue to out-picture it in your world.

Knowing this, begin to revalue yourself. Man has placed too little value upon himself. In the Book of Numbers you will read, "In that day there were giants in the land; and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers. And we were in their sight as grasshoppers." This does not mean a time in the dim past when man had the stature of giants. Today is the day, — the eternal now — when conditions round about you have attained the appearance of giants (such as unemployed, the armies of your enemy, your problems and all things that seem to threaten you) those are the giant that make you feel yourself to be a grasshopper. But, you are told, you were first, in your own sight a grasshopper and because of this you were to the giants — a grasshopper. In other words, you can only be to others what you are first to yourself. Therefore, to revalue yourself and begin to feel yourself to be the giant, a center of power, is to dwarf these former giants and make of them grasshoppers. "All the inhabitants of the earth are as nothing, and he doeth according to his will in the armies of Heaven and among all the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, nor say unto him, "What doest thou'?" This being spoken of is not the orthodox God sitting in space but the one and only God — the everlasting father, your awareness of being. So awake to the power that you are, not as man, but as your true self, a faceless, formless awareness, and free yourself from your self-imposed prison.

"I am the good shepherd and know my sheep and am known of mine. My sheep hear my voice and I know them and they will follow me." Awareness is the good shepherd. What I am aware of being, is the 'sheep' that follow me. So good a 'shepherd' is your awareness that it has never lost one of the 'sheep' that you are aware of being.

I am a voice calling in the wilderness of human confusion for such as I am aware of being, and never shall there come a time when that which I am convinced that I am shall fail to find me. "I AM" is an open door for all that I am to enter. Your awareness of being is lord and shepherd of your life. So, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want" is seen in its true light now to be your consciousness. You could never be in want of proof or lack the evidence of that which you are aware of being.

This being true, why not become aware of being great; God-loving; wealthy; healthy; and all attributes that you admire?

It is just as easy to possess the consciousness of these qualities as it is to possess their opposites for you have not your present consciousness because of your world. On the contrary, your world is what it is because of your present consciousness. Simple, is it not? Too simple in fact for the wisdom of man that tries to complicate everything.

Paul said of this principle, "It is to the Greeks" (or wisdom of this world) "foolishness." "And to the Jews" (or those who look for signs) "a stumbling block"; with the result, that man continues to walk in darkness rather than awake to the being that he is. Man has so long worshiped the images of his own making that at first he finds this revelation blasphemous, since it spells death to all his previous beliefs in a God apart from himself. This revelation will bring the knowledge that "I and my father are one but my father is greater than I." You are one with your present conception of yourself. But you are greater than that which you are at present aware of being.

You shall continue to be confused and thwarted until you find the cause of your confusion

Before man can attempt to transform his world he must first lay the foundation — "I AM the Lord." That is, man's awareness, his consciousness of being is God. Until this is firmly established so that no suggestion or argument put forward by others can shake it, he will find himself returning to the slavery of his former beliefs. "If ye believe not that I AM he, ye shall die in your sins." That is, you shall continue to be confused and thwarted until you find the cause of your confusion. When you have lifted up the son of man then shall you know that I AM he, that is, that I, John Smith, do nothing of myself, but my father, or that state of consciousness which I am now one with does the works.

When this is realized every urge and desire that springs within you shall find expression in your world. "Behold I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear my voice and open the door I will come in to him and sup with him and he with me." The "I" knocking at the door is the urge.

To open the door is to become one with that which is knocking

The door is your consciousness. To open the door is to become one with that which is knocking by FEELING oneself to be the thing desired. To feel one's desire as impossible is to shut the door or deny this urge expression. To rise in consciousness to the naturalness of the thing felt is to swing wide the door and invite this one into embodiment.

That is why it is constantly recorded that Jesus left the world of manifestation and ascended unto his father. Jesus, as you and I, found all things impossible to Jesus, as man. But having discovered his father to be the state of consciousness of the thing desired, he but left behind him the "Jesus consciousness" and rose in consciousness to that state desired and stood upon it until he became one with it. As he made himself one with that, he became that in expression.

This is Jesus simple message to man: Men are but garments that the impersonal being, I AM, — the presence that men call God — dwells in. Each garment has certain limitations. In order to transcend these limitations and give expression to that which, as man — John Smith — you find yourself incapable of doing, you take your attention away from your present limitations, or John Smith conception of yourself, and merge yourself in the feeling of being that which you desire. Just how this desire or newly attained consciousness will embody itself, no man knows. For I, or the newly attained consciousness, has ways that ye know not of; its ways are past finding out. Do not speculate as to the HOW of this consciousness embodying itself, for no man is wise enough to know the how. Speculation is proof that you have not attained to the naturalness of being the thing desired and so are filled with doubts.

You are told, "He who lacks wisdom let him ask of God, that gives to all liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given unto him. But let him ask not doubting for he who doubts is as a wave of the sea that is tossed and battered by the winds. And let not such a one think that he shall receive anything from the Lord.” You can see why this statement is made, for only upon the rock of faith can anything be established. If you have not the consciousness of the thing you have not the cause or foundation upon which thing is erected.

A proof of this established consciousness is given you in the words, “Thank you, father.” When you come into the joy of thanksgiving so that you actually feel grateful for having received that which is not yet apparent to the senses, you have definitely become one in consciousness with the thing for which you gave thanks. God (your awareness) is not mocked. You are ever receiving that which you are aware of being and no man gives thanks for something which he has not received. “Thank you father” is not, as it is used by many today a sort of magical formula. You need never utter aloud the words, “Thank you, father.” In applying this principle as you rise in consciousness to the point where you are really grateful and happy for having received the thing desired, you automatically rejoice and give thanks inwardly. You have already accepted the gift which was but a desire before you rose in consciousness, and your faith is now the substance that shall clothe your desire.

This rising in consciousness is the spiritual marriage where two shall agree upon being one and their likeness or image is established on earth.

“For whatsoever ye ask in my name the same give I unto you.” ‘Whatsoever’ is quite a large measure. It is the unconditional. It does not state if society deems it right or wrong that you should ask it, it rests with you. Do you really want it? Do you desire it? That is all that is necessary. Life will give it to you is you ask ‘in his name.’

When you ask in the nature of a thing, results ever follow

His name is not a name that you pronounce with the lips. You can ask forever in the name of God or Jehovah or Christ Jesus and you will ask in vain. ‘Name’ means nature; so, when you ask in the nature of a thing, results ever follow. To ask in the name is to rise I consciousness and become one in nature with the thing desired, rise in consciousness to the nature of the thing, and you will become that thing in expression. Therefore, “what things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them and ye shall receive them.”

Praying, as we have shown you before, is recognition — the injunction to believe that ye receive is first person, present tense. This means that you must be in the nature of the things asked for before you can receive them.

To get into the nature easily, general amnesty is necessary. We are told, "Forgive if ye have aught against any, that your father also, which is in Heaven, may forgive you. But if ye forgive not, neither will your father forgive you." This may seem to be some personal God who is pleased or displeased with your actions but this is not the case.

Consciousness, being God, if you hold in consciousness anything against man, you are binding that condition in your world. But to release man from all condemnation is to free yourself so that you may rise to any level necessary; there is therefore, no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus.

Therefore, a very good practice before you enter into your meditation is first to free every man in the world from blame. For LAW is never violated and you can rest confidently in the knowledge that every man's conception of himself is going to be his reward. So you do not have to bother yourself about seeing whether or not man gets what you consider he should get. For life makes no mistakes and always gives man that which man first gives himself.

This brings us to that much abused statement of the Bible on tithing. Teachers of all kinds have enslaved man with this affair of tithing, for not themselves understanding the nature of tithing and being themselves fearful of lack, they have led their followers to believe that a tenth part of their income should be given to the Lord. Meaning, as they make very clear, that, when one gives a tenth part of his income to their particular organization he is giving his "tenth part" to the Lord — (or is tithing). But remember, "I AM" the Lord."

Your awareness of being is the God that you give to and you ever give in this manner.

Therefore when you claim yourself to be anything, you have given that claim or quality to God. And your awareness of being, which is no respecter of persons, will return to you pressed down, shaken together, and running over with that quality or attribute which you claim for yourself.

Awareness of being is nothing that you could ever name. To claim God to be rich; to be great; to be love; to be all wise; is to define that which cannot be defined. For God is nothing that could ever be named.

Tithing is necessary and you do tithe with God. But from now on give to the only God and see to it that you give him the quality that you desire as man to express by claiming yourself to be the great, the wealthy, the loving, the all wise.

Do not speculate as to how you shall express these qualities or claims, for life has a way that you, as man, know not of. Its ways are past finding out. But, I assure you, the day you claim these qualities to the point of conviction, your claims will be honored. There is nothing covered that shall be uncovered. That which is spoken in secret shall be proclaimed from the housetops. That is, your secret convictions of yourself — these secret claims that no man knows of, when really believed, will be shouted from the housetops in your world. For your convictions of yourself are the words of the God within you, which words are spirit and cannot return unto you void but must accomplish whereunto they are sent.

To dissolve a problem that now seems so real to you, all that you do is remove your attention from it

You are at this moment calling out of the infinite that which you are now conscious of being. And not one word or conviction will fail to find you.

“I AM” the vine and ye are the branches.”
Consciousness is the ‘vine,’ and those qualities which you are now conscious of being are as ‘branches’ that you feed and keep alive. Just as a branch has no life except it be rooted in the vine, so likewise things have no life except you be conscious of them. Just as a branch withers and dies if the sap of the vine ceases to flow towards it, so do things in your world pass away if you take your attention from them, because your attention is as the sap of life that keeps alive and sustains the things of your world.

To dissolve a problem that now seems so real to you all that you do is remove your attention from it. In spite of its seeming reality, turn from it in consciousness. Become indifferent and begin to feel yourself to be that which would be the solution of the problem.

For instance; if you were imprisoned no man would have to tell you that you should desire freedom. Freedom, or rather the desire of freedom would be automatic. So why look behind the four walls of your prison bars? Take your attention from being imprisoned and begin to feel yourself to be free. FEEL it to the point where it is natural — the very second you do so, those prison bars will dissolve. Apply this same principle to any problem.

I have seen people who were in debt up to their ears apply this principle and in the twinkling of an eye debts that were mountainous were removed. I have seen those whom doctors had given up as incurable take their attention away from their problem of disease and begin to feel themselves to be well in spite of the evidence of their sense to the contrary. In no time at all this so-called “incurable disease” vanished and left no scar.

Your answer to, “Whom do you say that I AM”? [sic] ever determines your expression. As long as you are conscious of being imprisoned or diseased, or poor, so long will you continue to out-picture or express these conditions.

When man realized that he is now that which he is seeking and begins to claim that he is, he will have the proof of his claim. This cue is given you in words, “Whom seek ye?” And they answered, “Jesus.” And the voice said, “I am he.” ‘Jesus’ here means salvation or savior. You are seeking to be salvaged from that which is not your problem.

“I am” is he that will save you. If you are hungry, your savior is food. If you are poor, your savior is riches. If you are imprisoned, your savior is freedom. If you are diseased, it will not be a man called Jesus who will save you, but health will become your savior. Therefore, claim “I am he,” in other words, claim yourself to be the thing desired. Claim it in consciousness — not in words — and consciousness will reward you with your claim. You are told, “You shall find me when you FEEL after me.” Well, FEEL after that quality in consciousness until you FEEL yourself to be it. When you lose yourself in the feeling of being it, the quality will embody itself in your world.

You are healed from your problem when you touch the solution of it. “Who has touched me? For I perceive virtue is gone out of me.” Yes, the day you touch this being within you — FEELING yourself to be cured or healed, virtues will come out of your very self and solidify themselves in your world as healings.

It is said, ‘You believe in God. Believe also in me for I am he.’ Have the faith of God. “He made himself one with God and found it not robbery to do the works of God.” Go you and do likewise. Yes, begin to believe your awareness, your consciousness of being to be God. Claim for yourself all the attributes that you have heretofore given an external God and you will begin to express these claims.

“For I am not a God afar off. I am nearer than your hands and feet — nearer than your very breathing.” I am your awareness of being. I am that in which all that I shall ever be aware of being shall begin and end. “For before the world was I AM; and when the world shall cease to be, I AM; before Abraham was, I AM.” This I AM is your awareness.

“Except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it.” ‘The Lord,’ being your consciousness, except that which you seek is first established in your consciousness, you will labor in vain to find it. All things must begin and end in consciousness.

All things must begin and end in consciousness

So, blessed indeed is the man that trusteth in himself — for man’s faith in God will ever be measured by his confidence in himself. You believe in a God, believe also in ME.

Put not your trust in men for men but reflect the being that you are, and can only bring to you or do unto you that which you have first done unto yourself.

“No man taketh away my life, I lay it down myself.” I have the power to lay it down and the power to take it up again.

No matter what happens to man in this world it is never an accident. It occurs under the guidance of an exact and changeless Law.

“No man” (manifestation) “comes unto me except the father within me draw him,” and “I and my father are one.” Believe this truth and you will be free. Man has always blamed others for that which he is and will continue to do so until he find himself as cause of all. “I AM” comes not to destroy but to fulfill. “I AM,” the awareness within you, destroys nothing but ever fill full the molds or conception one has of one’s self.

It is impossible for the poor man to find wealth in this world no matter how he is surrounded with it until he first claims himself to be wealthy. For signs follow, they do not precede. To constantly kick and complain against the limitations of poverty while remaining poor in consciousness is to play the fool’s game. Changes cannot take place from that level of consciousness for life in constantly out-picturing all levels.

Follow the example of the prodigal son. Realize that you, yourself brought about this condition of waste and lack and make the decision within yourself to rise to a higher level where the fatted calf, the ring, and the robe await your claim.

There was no condemnation of the prodigal when he had the courage to claim this inheritance as his own. Others will condemn us only as long as we continue in that for which we condemn ourselves. So: “Happy is the man that condemneth himself not in that which he alloweth.” For to life nothing is condemned. All is expressed.

Life does not care whether you call yourself rich or poor; strong or weak. It will eternally reward you with that which you claim as true of yourself.

The measurements of right and wrong belong to man alone. To life there is nothing right or wrong. As Paul stated in his letters to the Romans: “I know and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus that there is nothing unclean of itself, but to him that esteemeth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.” Stop asking yourself whether you are worthy or unworthy to receive that which you desire. You, as man, did not create the desire. Your desires are ever fashioned within you because of what you now claim yourself to be.

When a man is hungry, (without thinking) he automatically desires food. When imprisoned, he automatically desires freedom and so forth. Your desires contain within themselves the plan of self-expression.

So leave all judgments out of the picture and rise in consciousness to the level of your desire and make yourself one with it by claiming it to be so now. For: “My grace is sufficient for thee. My strength is made perfect in weakness.”

Have faith in this unseen claim until the conviction is born within you that it is so. Your confidence in this claim will pay great rewards. Just a little while and he, the thing desired, will come. But without faith it is impossible to realize anything. Through faith the worlds were framed because “faith is the substance of the thing hoped for — the evidence of the thing not yet seen.”

Don’t be anxious or concerned as to results. They will follow just as surely as day follows night.

The reason most of us fail to realize our desires is because we are constantly conditioning them

Look upon your desires — all of them — as the spoken words of God, and every word or desire a promise. The reason most of us fail to realize our desires is because we are constantly conditioning them. Do not condition your desire. Just accept it as it comes to you. Give thanks for it to the point that you are grateful for having already received it — then go about your way in peace.

Such acceptance of your desire is like dropping seed — fertile seed — into prepared soil. For when you can drop the thing desired in consciousness, confident that it shall appear, you have done all that is expected to you. But, to be worried or concerned about the HOW of your desire maturing is to hold these fertile seeds in a mental grasp, and, therefore, never to have dropped them in the soil of confidence.

The reason men condition their desires is because they constantly judge after the appearance of being and see the things as real — forgetting that the only reality is the consciousness back of them.

To see things as real is to deny that all things are possible to God. The man who is imprisoned and sees his four walls as real is automatically denying the urge or promise of God within him of freedom.

Problems are the mountains spoken of that can be removed if one has faith

A question often asked when this statement is made is; If one's desire is a gift of God how can you say that if one desires to kill a man that such a desire is good and therefore God sent? In answer to this let me say that no man desires to kill another. What he does desire is to be freed from such a one. But because he does not believe that the desire to be free from such a one contains within itself the powers of freedom, he conditions that desire and sees the only way to express such freedom is to destroy the man — forgetting that the life wrapped within the desire has ways that he, as man, knows not of. Its ways are past finding out. Thus man distorts the gifts of God through his lack of faith.

Problems are the mountains spoken of that can be removed if one has but the faith of a grain of a mustard seed. Men approach their problem as did the old lady who, on attending service and hearing the priest say, "If you had but the faith of a grain of a mustard seed you would say unto yonder mountain 'be thou removed' and it shall be removed and nothing is impossible to you."

That night as she said her prayers, she quoted this part of the scriptures and retired to bed in what she thought was faith. On arising in the morning she rushed to the window and exclaimed: "I knew that old mountain would still be there."

For this is how man approaches his problem. He knows that they are still going to confront him. And because life is no respecter of persons and destroys nothing, it continues to keep alive that which he is conscious of being.

Things will disappear only as man changes in consciousness. Deny it if you will, it still remains a fact that consciousness is the only reality and things but mirror that which you are in consciousness. So the heavenly state you are seeking will be found only in consciousness, for the kingdom of heaven is within you. As the will of heaven is ever done on earth you are today living in the heaven that you have established within you. For here on this very earth your heaven reveals itself. The kingdom of heaven really is at hand. NOW is the accepted time. So create a new heaven, enter into a new state of consciousness and a new earth will appear.

“The former things shall pass away. They shall not be remembered not come into mind any more. For behold, I,” (your consciousness) “come quickly and my reward is with me.”

I am nameless but will take upon myself every name (nature) that you call me. Remember it is you, yourself, that I speak of as ‘me.’ So every conception that you have of yourself — that is every deep conviction — you have of yourself is that which you shall appear as being — for I AM not fooled; God is not mocked.

Now let me instruct you in the art of fishing. It is recorded that the disciples fished all night and caught nothing. Then Jesus came upon the scene and told them to cast their nets in once more, into the same waters that only a moment before were barren — and this time their nets were bursting with the catch.

This story is taking place in the world today right within you, the reader. For you have within you all the elements necessary to go fishing. But until you find that Jesus Christ, (your awareness) is Lord, you will fish, as did these disciples, in the night of human darkness. That is, you will fish for THINGS thinking things to be real and will fish with the human bait — which is a struggle and an effort — trying to make contact with this one and that one: trying to coerce this being or the other being; and all such effort will be in vain. But when you discover your awareness of being to be Christ Jesus you will let him direct your fishing. And you will fish in consciousness for the things that you desire. For your desire — will be the fish that you will catch, because your consciousness is the only living reality you will fish in the deep waters of consciousness.

Leave behind you all that is now your present problem or limitation

If you would catch that which is beyond your present capacity you must launch out into deeper waters, for, within your present consciousness such fish or desires cannot swim. To launch out into deeper waters, you leave behind you all that is now your present problem, or limitation, by taking your ATTENTION AWAY from it. Turn your back completely upon every problem and limitation that you now possess.

Dwell upon just being by saying, “I AM,” “I AM,” “I AM,” to yourself. Continue to declare to yourself that you just are. Do not condition this declaration, just continue to FEEL yourself to be and without warning you will find yourself slipping the anchor that tied you to the shallow of your problems and moving out into the deep.

Don't be afraid, for courage is necessary

This is usually accompanied with the feeling of expansion. You will FEEL yourself expand as though you were actually growing. Don't be afraid, for courage is necessary. You are not going to die to anything but your former limitations, but they are going to die as you move away from them, for they live only in your consciousness. In this deep or expanded consciousness you will find yourself to be a power that you had never dreamt of before.

The things desired before you shoved off from the shores of limitation are the fish you are going to catch in this deep. Because you have lost all consciousness of your problems and barriers, it is now the easiest thing in the world to FEEL yourself to be one with the things desired.

Because I AM (your consciousness) is the resurrection and the life, you must attach this resurrecting power that you are to the thing desired if you would make it appear and live in your world. Now you begin to assume the nature of the thing desired by feeling, “I AM wealthy”; “I AM free”; “I AM strong.” When these ‘FEELS’ are fixed within yourself, your formless being will take upon itself the forms of the things felt. You become ‘crucified’ upon the feelings of wealth, freedom, and strength. — Remain buried in the stillness of these convictions. Then, as a thief in the night and when you least expect it, these qualities will be resurrected in your world as living realities.

The world shall touch you and see that you are flesh and blood for you shall begin to bear fruit of the nature of these qualities newly appropriated. This is the art of successful fishing for the manifestations of life.

Successful realization of the thing desired is also told us in the story of Daniel in the lion's den. Here, it is recorded that Daniel, while in the lion's den, turned his back upon the lions and looked towards the light coming from above; that the lions remained powerless and Daniel's faith in his God saved him.

This also is your story and you too must do as Daniel did. If you found yourself in a lion's den you would have no other concern but lions. You would not be thinking of one thing in the world but your problem — which problem would be lions.

Yet, you are told that Daniel turned his back upon them and looked towards the light that was his God. If we would follow the example of Daniel we would, while imprisoned within the den of poverty of sickness, take our attention away from our problems of debts or sickness and dwell upon the thing we seek.

If we do not look back in consciousness to our problems but continue in faith — believing ourselves to be that which we seek, we too will find our prison walls open and the thing sought — yes, “whatsoever things” — realized.

Another story is told us; of the widow and the three drops of oil. The prophet asked the widow, “What have ye in your house?” And she replied, “Three drops of oil.” He then said to her, “Go borrow vessels. Close the door after ye have returned into your house and begin to pour.” And she poured from three drops of oil into all the borrowed vessels, filling them to capacity with oil remaining.

You, the reader, are this widow. You have not a husband to impregnate you or make you fruitful, for a ‘widow’ is a barren state. Your awareness is now the Lord — or the prophet that has become your husband.

Follow the example of the widow, who instead of recognizing an emptiness or nothingness, recognized the something — three drops of oil.

Then the command to her, “Go within and close the door,” that is, shut the door of the senses that tell you of the empty measures, the debts, the problems.

Recognition is the power that conjures in the world

When you have taken your attention away completely by shutting out the evidence of the senses, begin to FEEL the joy, — (symbolized by oil) — of having received the things desired. When the agreement is established within you so that all doubts and fears have passed away, then, you too will fill all the empty measures of your life and ill have an abundance running over.

Recognition is the power that conjures in the world. Every state that you have ever recognized, you have embodied. That which you are recognizing as true of yourself today is that which you are experiencing. So be as the widow and recognize joy, no matter how little the beginnings of recognition, and you will be generously rewarded — for the world is a magnified mirror, magnifying everything that you are conscious of being.

“I AM the Lord the God, which has brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; thou shalt have not her gods before me.” What a glorious revelation, your awareness now revealed as the Lord thy God! Come, awake from your dream of being imprisoned. Realize that the earth is yours, “and the fullness thereof; the world, and all that dwells therein.”

You have become so enmeshed in the belief that you are man that you have forgotten the glorious being that you are. Now with your memory restored DECREE the unseen to appear and it SHALL appear, for all things are compelled to respond to the Voice of God, Your awareness of being — the world is AT YOUR COMMAND!

The End

Neville's Manifestation Secret by Dr. Joe Vitale

Using Neville's At Your Command method, I will teach you how to manifest a new car (or anything else)...

Who Else Wants to Attract a Brand New Car, Boat, House — or Maybe $97,000 in Cash — Using this New Secret Magic Formula?

Give me four hours and I'll show you how to attract a new car - or anything else you can imagine - using my guaranteed five-step easy system... I've attracted seven new cars – so far – and now I'm teaching others how to manifest them... Want to be next? Invest in my proven system today.

Why the focus on manifesting a new car? Good question. Here's why...

First, a new car is something almost everyone wants. And since my mission is to introduce these principles to as many people as possible, teaching people how to attract a new car is the perfect way to do this.

And second, unlike subjective goals like wealth or happiness, a new car is tangible — it is easy to tell if you have manifested one or not. I am so convinced these steps work, I want you to try them out on a goal that leaves no room for doubt.

So, are you ready for a new car — or something else?

It's all revealed in the following incredible true story — including how one woman attracted $97,000!

This is a letter from the E-Desk of Dr. Joe Vitale:

Dear Friend, Would you like a brand new car?

Would you like it despite your credit, your work status, or the amount of money in your bank?

Would you like to almost magically manifest it?

If so, keep reading...

Last May nearly 1,000 people called from all over the world to listen to an unusual four-part teleseminar series I hosted on How to Attract a New Car.

They got up at 2 AM in Germany and Switzerland. They were on the call at noon in New Zealand and Australia. They called from all over the US and Canada. They made time to hear these four one-hour calls, no matter where they were or what they had to do...

And the results were amazing.

Here are just some of the results so far...

- Kevin Coyne attracted a new SUV.
- Allen D'Angelo attracted a new Mercedes.
- Bill Hibbler attracted a Mercedes, too (as well as a wife, but that's a different story).
- David Perdew attracted a brand new Harley-Davidson motorcycle.
- F. Edward Fitchett attracted a Sea Ray 1900 Sportboat.
- Pat O'Bryan attracted a brand new Scion — after taking a week to process his limiting beliefs and true terror about buying any sort of new car — and he wasn't even on the calls but only heard about the essence of them through me! (He described his new wheels as being like "Batman's golf cart.")

Guests on the calls explained how they attracted everything from a race-car Dodge Viper to a nifty cool Volkswagen to a new Jeep to a new Mercedes – often when they had no money, no credit, and no logical chance of ever getting into even a used car.

But they all got new cars, anyway.

And me?

I had already used my system to attract 5 Saturns and my first BMW (a beautiful James Bond-ish Z3 sports car, which I still love).

But I also went through the teleseminar like everyone else and ended up attracting a brand new 2005 BMW 645Ci — a luxury sports car worth $90,000!!!

And on top of that, the car was made for me in Germany. That's right. I ordered the car to be built to my specifications.

You have to remember that I was the guy who was homeless at one point, who lived in virtual poverty for years. Today I'm ordering one of the greatest auto manufacturers in the history of the world to build a car for me — a car worth more than many people's homes!!!

How is all this possible?

You have to stop and wonder...

- How can everyday average people like you and me actually attract new cars?
- How can a person get a Bentley — worth a quarter of a million dollars — for only $5,000?
- How can someone with no credit and no cash drive off with a brand new car?
- How can someone terrified of cars and car sales people get over it in just days?
- How can I go from poverty to ordering BMW to build a new car for me?
- How is all this possible?

Basically, the answer is in correctly using the 5 step system introduced in my book The Attractor Factor — the very book that knocked Harry Potter off the #1 bestseller spot — twice — in April, 2005.

When you correctly use the 5 steps, and ignore the voice of doubt in your head, you can create miracles.

I know it seems impossible to believe, but it's true.

In fact, I'll prove it to you...

Here's proof:

As I mentioned earlier, last May I hosted a series of four teleseminars to help people fully understand and use my guaranteed five-step system to attract a new car. Some listened to learn how to attract other things, like a house or wealth, because the principles are the same. Still, the focus of the calls was on how to attract a new car. Listeners said:

"Only 4 days after the 4th session... my wife & I attracted our Dream Boat into our lives: A 2001 Sea Ray 1900 Sportboat with 4.3L V6 Mercruiser! And the best part about this is: 1) we got 50% use of this boat for FREE (I have a pier and lakefront property on the Lake of Geneva, Switzerland) in exchange for the use of my pier and... 2) we dreamed of this boat for the past 4 years when we vacationed with my sister and her husband in Charlotte, NC and went skiing and wakeboarding in their identical boat ! Thank you for keeping me on your mailing list for future seminars."

To your belief and success,

~ F. Edward Fitchett,

INVC Resources, CH-1273 Switzerland

"Thank you for a wonderful teleseminar series! Every call was so inspiring and practical. Tonight's call was particularly good. In fact, I think it was the best of the series! Wendi's stories were so thoroughly to the point. The fears that I have had — AND BEEN MANAGING — were dealt with in such a pragmatic and straightforward manner. Thank you for gathering the people you have gathered and for all of the free extras and bonuses! You have done a magnificent job. I wish you continued and stellar success."

~ Richard Rossner, www.ThePowerOfPlay.com

"These calls were truly inspiring. They brought 'The Attractor Factor' book to life. These principles are not difficult, but listening to the people who have actually achieved their dreams, was priceless! Anyone who has any doubts as to the sincerity of what you do, needs to put those doubts aside & open their hearts & mind to the wonderful abundant life that is waiting for them. Thank you for everything!"

~ Barbara, Weatherford, Tx

"I was on two of the 'attract a new car' calls. After reading your book 'The Attractor Factor,' I was curious to find out more about the subject but I didn't want to attract a new car. What it did do for me was to open my eyes and mind to the possibilities of what a 'thought' can generate and how powerful thought is. Your guests were very enlightening especially Wendi Friesen and Randy Gage. I'm a real estate broker and I need all the help I can get. Thanks, Joe."

~ Jim Body, www.JimsRealEstate.net

"You're not only a genius, you're a generous genius! Thank you so much for the calls. The effort was apparent; you had to spend some time putting them together with the amount of quality information and amazingly interesting people that were on these calls."

"Thank you thank you thank you. My husband and I missed but one call, and you and your guests would literally take us to a new level of energy and understanding after each call! I just got off the phone with a friend who had been complaining about her life. She asked me if there was info that could be helpful to her. Of course who would say it better than you?"

"I am buying yet another one of your books and mailing it to her. I have been practicing 'Nevillizing' with passion, things started happening instantly!"

~ Anya Lincoln, www.anyalincoln.com

“Unfortunately I could not make the first call, but fortunately I have been on calls 2 and 3, and although it was 2am in the morning (I am from Germany) it was well worth the sleepless nights. As a car was not on my high priority list - although I will get me one later (a blue Porsche Boxster S with sandbeige leather interior) I focused on a long term financial issue. A few days after this process was finished and repeated a few times, I had talks with my bank and a very grave situation now seems reversing by 180 degrees.

“Thank you Joe for your continued commitment and for being an example of what really can be achieved!”

~ Harald, Germany

“Here’s why Joe Vitale is #1! He cared enough about his readers to take them by the hand and personally lead them to accomplish a specific goal... with amazing results.

“If you’re serious about getting a new car — of your choice — you need to hear and apply the material covered in these calls! Period.”

~Daniel Hall, Living Waters Wellness Center,

“As an independent consultant, I go through short periods of unemployment. As this series of calls was beginning, my consulting contract was ending. I expected to be “unemployed” for the summer. And my wife and I were dying to get new Harleys. Although we are passionate about motorcycle riding, we’ve have been without Harleys for three years. I decided to use the ‘How to Attract a New Car Calls’ and ‘The Attractor Factor’ principles to attract bikes and money.

“It worked!”

“During the second week, a former client approached me with a year-long contract with a potential payout three times greater than any previous contract. And the motorcycles? We’ll pick them up next week.

“Thanks Joe. It works!”

As I mentioned earlier, people can attract more than new cars or motorcycles or speed boats with my proven five-step system.

In fact, I’m not sure there are any limits to what you can attract.

After all, isn’t anything possible? Who’s to say?

For example, read this jaw-dropping true story...

How to Attract $97,000

"As I went through the various exercises I also did some work around 'letting go' and forgiveness around my ex-husband, who has not seen our girls for over 8 years and owes well over $100,000 in child support.

"This morning I got a call from Child Support. I figured it was to ask the usual question: 'Have you heard from your ex-husband?'

"When she asked to get my current husband and sit down — I started shaking, unaware of what was happening. After all, she had been trying to call me for two weeks and I had not returned the calls (why bother?).

"She said my ex had been in contact with her and wanted to get his life back together. They had negotiated an initial payment. (I'm thinking maybe a $1,000).

"Are you sure you are sitting? Is your husband with you?"

"Oh God, what's happened?' I thought, my hands shaking...

"Mrs. Law, we have a check in the amount of $50,000, about half what is owed, but I need your marriage license so we can issue it to you in your proper name.'

"Enough said — the steps work...and this is only one of the stories I could tell since I have been working with 'The Attractor Factor.' One hour ago, the world changed."

~ Anita Law, www.Dare-Dreamers.com

The list goes on, but you get the idea.

This system — these five steps — truly works. All you need to know is how to correctly use the steps. What will you attract when you learn this system?

I wonder...

"I have spent the last 30 years, reading, attending seminars, and calls about all kinds of spiritual information. Some of the information has been vague or left questions in my mind. Joe's calls were the exception to the last 30 years that I have spent searching for 'real specifics' on manifesting anything that one really and truly desires. Not only did I thoroughly enjoy all the calls for 'Attract a New Car' but, I strongly recommend Joe's book 'The Attractor Factor.' Could be my favorite book.....on How to attract anything you want."

~ Jackie Rosenfeld

Now, here's the good news for you:

All of the calls were recorded and then transcribed. I put them online for your easy access. You can listen to them online, playing them right over your speakers, or you can download them to listen in your car, while working-out, or anything else. It's entirely up to you.

Or you can read the transcripts at your leisure. They are all PDF e-books, which you can read on virtually any computer.

For far less than the price of a single car payment, you can access all of the calls, all of the transcripts to the calls, as well as some surprise bonus gifts.

Here's an overview of what you'll get when you order today:

Lesson #1: Two mystery guests begin the calls by explaining how they attracted new cars. (Both Mercedes). You then get to listen as an energy expert teaches you a way to release the blocks to your attracting a new car. You can do this “block releasing” method right at home, while listening to the call. It works, too — almost by magic. This call is high energy, practical, psychological, and very inspiring.

Lesson #2: This call begins with yet another guest explaining how he attracted a new car. He also tells how he managed to attract tickets to sold-out shows. Then a well known manifestation expert explains the physics of manifestation and the law of vibration. This is easy to follow and implement. You'll find the call upbeat, fast, and fun. You'll learn how to attract “wealth beyond reason.”

Lesson #3: It begins with two authors explaining how to get rich with a three step formula for attracting a new car (or anything else). You then get to again experience an energy releasing technique — you can do it at home as you listen — designed to free you of fears, limits, and self-defeating beliefs. This is a very freeing call. (This is the call that shifted me so I was able to order a BMW made for me in Germany.)

Lesson #4: This final call was phenomenal. This is where I explained how I was able to attract a brand new BMW luxury sports car. But that was only the warm-up to this hot call. One of the world's most successful hypnotic women explains how she attracted her new car, and reveals ways to get the universe to bring you what you want. (You won't believe the power of a yellow stickie note!) Her stories are inspiring and instructive. She is followed by a famous “prosperity messiah” who reveals how the culture has programmed you to stay poor and unhappy. I end the call by reviewing the steps in The Attractor Factor and urging you to “Dare Something Worthy.”

Obviously, those brief descriptions don't give you a complete sense of the power in these calls. But you get the idea.

I know at this point you're probably getting excited about learning my system, but let me turn on the after-burners and throw this into high gear...

The Truth about this System:

Let me tell you a secret about this system. This system isn't about getting a new car.

Oh, you can get a new car. That's for sure. But this system isn't about getting a new car. Not at its core.

Instead, this system is...

- About learning to live your life from power and responsibility.
- About learning to attract anything you can imagine.
- About learning how to consciously create circumstances.

You see, the system is designed to help you get past your own limitations. Right now getting a new car almost by magic may seem impossible to you. Well, it only seems that way because of your current belief system.

In other words, this system is all about helping you release your mental limits so you can have, do, or be virtually anything you want.

Attracting a new car is simply a type of human potential exercise. It's a way to stretch your mind. It's a way to show you the portal to your own inner power.

This system was created to help you get in touch with the core of who you are.

And that core isn't your name. It's bigger than you. Or me. One person said...

"Your calls on how to attract a car intrigued my wife Vicki and I, not because we really wanted a car, but because we desire to be able to attract all of our desires and we knew it would be great training. We were right.

"One of the first things we experienced was total peace that all of the things we desire to have or experience are already done. Not having to figure out how it is all supposed to happen is a huge relief. It is also exciting to watch things just happen. I have found $50 laying on the ground. I have received phone calls that represent new business opportunities and income streams. I expect it because that's what I have put out into the universe.

"Vicki has desired to have an internet business so she can stay home with our daughter and develop a significant income. She was frustrated with all of the details of internet technology and knew she needed a coach. She put out to the universe her desire for a coach or mentor. You then offered your Mentoring Program and she applied along with thousands of others. She was accepted into the program and now looks forward to fulfilling another dream. This is how life was designed to be lived. Good or bad, we are the authors. Thank you Joe. We will continue to spread this message to everyone we can."

~ Sincerely, Brian Jensen

People left these calls inspired to do what they previously thought was impossible.

- Can you imagine how powerful they must feel?
- Can you imagine how they must feel like anything is possible?
- Can you imagine what you might be able to accomplish with this same power?

You can now access all of the calls — and all of the transcripts — for a one-time investment of under $150. (Some people overseas paid far more just to make the phone calls to hear these teleseminars live.)

But that's not all...

You'll Get These Surprise Bonus Gifts, too:

1. You'll also get to hear a rare audio of the deceased mystic who taught people how to "Nevillize" their goal. Neville Goddard was a genius at explaining the laws of the universe. You'll hear his actual voice from one of his live talks from 1960. Note: The sound quality is low but you'll understand him.
2. You'll also get a PDF e-book containing rare 1948 lessons by Neville on how to manifest things in your life. (I paid $100 for an original private edition of this on eBay.)

3. You'll get to hear "Cup of Joe," an intimate question and answer session with me, where people asked me personal and professional questions about marketing, the Internet, my huge weight loss, The Attractor Factor, and more. I revealed things here I never told anyone in public before, ever. I also explain "Karmic Surgery" (yagnas) for the first time anywhere. I also explain the problem with traditional manifesting methods, etc. This is a collectible audio experience you'll truly love.
4. You'll also get to hear a members-only audio interview with me where I reveal my early history, what I do to stay passionate, and how to achieve effort-free living. This audio is for members only of a London based group of high-achievers, but it's yours when you invest in my system today.
5. You'll also get to hear a recent private audio interview with me where I coached some people to go for their dreams. I also explain why Freud was wrong, and much more.
6. You'll get several surprise extra bonuses, as well. These include a "Special Report on How to Buy a New Car." You'll find all these, and more, as you read the transcripts or listen to the audios of the calls on "How to Attract a New Car."

As you can sense, this is a terrific bundle of material. Advisors told me I should charge $997 for all of this. I'm tempted to charge $395 or more for everything, but I won't. I want to be fair about this. I've been where you are and I want to help you move up a level or two in your life. So I'll leave the price at $137 — at least for today.

- Will this system really work?
- Will this system really work for me?
- Should I trust this guy about what he's telling me?

All good questions, of course. But it's that very voice of doubt that is keeping you from moving forward.

I know it's tough to swallow, but doubt is the reason most people don't take action, and consequently why most people stay stuck. Well, let me ease your concerns...

Your Money-Back 90-Day Guarantee:

Here's the deal — Your satisfaction is totally guaranteed or your money back.

Since you are receiving four hours of instruction (with rare priceless surprise bonuses) for only $137, you can imagine how fair this deal is.

As you'll hear in the teleseminars, doubt is often self-sabotage at work. Are you going to control it, or let it control you?

The choice is yours.
