MING GOLD®

*Enhanced stamina for active living**

DESCRIPTION

Looking for a performance edge? Look no further than a certain natural herb that the Chinese have used for thousands of years, an herb that Chinese athletes still rely on today. It's called cordyceps, a grass-like fungus that has long been known for its stamina-promoting properties.*

As the main ingredient in Neways Ming Gold®, cordyceps works with other natural ingredients to provide your body with the stamina you need to hit peak performance. Ming Gold® includes herbs to support the health of your cells, cardiovascular system, immune system, and respiratory system. In addition, this supplement supports sexual health and maintains cholesterol levels that are already within the normal range.*

A health-maintenance program that includes Ming Gold® can support the stamina you need for active living. From the amateur to the professional athlete, many people can benefit from taking Ming Gold®.*
